Election/Restrictions

1. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions I (Claims 1-34, 42-58, 71-75 and 82-88), II (Claims 35-41), III (Claims 76-81), and IV (Claims 59, 61-70 and 89-98) are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions I, II, III and IV have different modes of operation.

- In Invention I, the architecture, circuit and method for transferring data comprises a clock recovery loop to provide a recovered signal, a filter circuit and a transmitter.
- In Invention II, the multiport device comprising a plurality of receiver, a plurality of transmitters and a plurality of data paths for transferring data.
- Invention III, the multiport device comprising a plurality of means for receiving, a plurality of means for transmitting serial data in according with a periodic signal and said periodic signal being adjusted in response to a filtered recovered clock information, and a plurality of means for transferring data.
- In Invention IV, the circuit and method for transferring data comprises detecting a difference between first and second periodic signals, filtering first periodic signal information and combining an output of the detecting and an output of filtering to provide a control signal.

They are mutually exclusive and can be operated independently. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

2. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no generic.
3. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
